Sir,

Adverting to G. O. No.L.3734-5-Med.7-23-18, dated 17th November 1924, sanctioning the appointment of Mr. N.A.Iyengar as an Assistant Surgeon, 2nd Grade, on Rs.200, the maximum pay of the grade, I have the honor to state that the order is silent as to the application of the usual conditions of a year's probation and a three years' agreement to his appointment.

As it is necessary to subject all appointments to a probation of one year and as no special circumstances could be traced in the file relating to his appointment to justify an exception being made in his case, I presume that the omission was entirely an oversight. Mr. Iyengar has, however, already executed the required agreement. I request that formal orders may kindly be communicated for subjecting his appointment to one year's probation, after which he will be duly recommended for confirmation, should his probation be reported to be satisfactory, in the usual course.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

H. B. Mylvaganam

Senior Surgeon.

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. L.1976-Med.2-24-10, dated 8-9-24, I have the honor to state that a year's probation, in the case of Mr. M.A. Iyengar is necessary for more reasons than one and that it is usual to confirm an officer from the date of the expiry of the probationery period. I can see no reason to make an exception in the case of Mr. Iyengar. Even Capt., A. Shanta, M.B., M.R.C.P. (Lond) M.R.S. is taken on a year's probation.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

SENIOR SURGEON.
